MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: Herbert E. Hetu
Director of Public Affairs

SUBJECT: Your Appearance before the Keystone Capital Chapter of AFIO and the Harrisburg Foreign Policy Association

1. Action Requested: You consider appearing at a dinner meeting of the Keystone Capital Chapter of AFIO and the Harrisburg Foreign Policy Association on Saturday, 10 March, at the Penn Harris Motor Inn, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, 1800-2100.

2. Background: Approximately 60 members of the Harrisburg Chapter of AFIO and the Harrisburg Foreign Policy Association will be at a dinner meeting. The Foreign Policy Association comprises local businessmen, doctors, lawyers and the like. Local television and radio news people will be on hand for taped interviews.

Since this is a group of retired intelligence officers, this is a good opportunity to clarify some current issues. About seven former CIA employees are members. It would consume a fair amount of your time to accommodate this group and may, therefore, not be worth the investment.

3. Recommendation: Harrisburg is fairly close to Wilkes Barre and would provide you with an opportunity to visit your home if you wished. The group is small so your impact will be limited. We can, of course, offer them another speaker should you elect not to appear.
